PALESTINE CRISIS

INDIGNATION OF JEWS IN LONDON

ALBERT HALL DEMONSTRATION

Breakdown Of Administration Almost Unequalled

INDIAN MUTINY RECALLED

Feelings of "horror and indignation" were voiced by 10,000 London Jews at a meeting at the Albert Hall yesterday, in protest against the massacre of their brothers in Palestine.

Lord Melchett, who presided, said that they were witnessing a breakdown of British administration almost unequalled since the Indian mutiny. The position which had been allowed to arise was a disgrace to the country.

ENTRANCES STORMED BY CROWD

London, To-day.

Ten thousand Jews from all parts of London attended a protest meeting at the Albert Hall, presided over by Lord Melchett, to voice the "feeling of horror and indignation at the massacre of Jews in Palestine."

Three thousand were unable to gain admission, and the police had to intervene, as the crowds were storming the entrances. Eventually a number of overflow meetings were held near the Hall.

Lord Melchett said that they were witnessing a breakdown of British administration almost unequalled since the Indian mutiny. He did not wish to criticise the present Government, who took what steps they could to remedy the situation, but the position which had been allowed to arise in Palestine was a disgrace to any British administration.

Dr. Weizmann, President of the Zionist Organisation, said that the matter called for the fullest investigation of the whole matter in which the Mandate had been administered in recent years.

"SAVAGE MURDERS"

Commission to Inflict Stern Punishment

Jerusalem, To-day.

The High Commissioner, Sir John Chancellor, has issued a proclamation referring in very strong terms to the "savage murders of defenceless Jews, regardless of age or sex," and declaring, "my first duties will be to restore order and inflict stern punishment on those found guilty of acts of violence."

In view of the recent events, he will suspend the discussions which, in accordance with the promise he gave the Committee of the Arab Executive, he initiated with His Majesty's Government, regarding constitutional changes in Palestine.—Reuter.

Casualties Growing

Jerusalem, Yesterday.

The latest official casualty list in Palestine is as follows:—

Killed	109
Jews	83
Muslims	8
Christians	4

Six more Jews were discovered killed at Safed on Thursday.—Reuter.

Earlier News

Jerusalem, Saturday.

Jerusalem has now been a city of death for eight days, during which all work has ceased. As a result the people are starving. Hundreds are receiving bread rations. Everywhere a deadly quiet reigns, and everyone is in a very nervous state. The military are most vigilant.

A shocking affray occurred at Safed last night when bands of Arabs, armed with knives, attacked the Jewish quarter, burning and looting. Seventy Jews were killed or wounded. The Chief of the Benisukkar, Trans-Jordan tribe has been arrested here.

Appeal To League

Cairo, Saturday.

A meeting of the Egyptian Nationalist Party decided to telegraph to the League of Nations' Mandates' Commission, protesting against the events in Palestine, and urging the Commission to convince Great Britain that the Balfour declaration should be withdrawn, as it is responsible for the bloodshed in Palestine.

A meeting of Indian Muslims residing in Egypt decided to telegraph to the League of Nations

TWO SOLDIERS IN COURT

A SERIOUS CASE

OLD CHINESE WOMAN'S LIFE IN DANGER?

THROWN ON THE STREET

Privates Thomas McEwen and Harry Shea, of the 2nd Battalion, the King's Own Scottish Borderers, were this morning charged before Mr. E. W. Hamilton, at the Central Magistracy, on two counts of assault, as follows:—

(1) that they on Friday evening at Shelley-street, assaulted a Chinese woman named Chan Lei-sze, causing her bodily harm; and

(2) that they on Friday evening at or near Lyndhurst-terrace, assaulted a Chinese man named Tse Tin.

Both accused pleaded "not guilty" to the first charge. In reply to the other, McEwen said: "I admit hitting the man, your Worship," whilst Shea said: "Not guilty, sir."

Inspector R. Murphy prosecuted. The accused were not legally represented, but an officer of the regiment sat on the bench with the Magistrate.

Asked for the facts of the case, Inspector Murphy said that about 11 p.m., on Friday, the two accused were walking down Shelley-street. When passing house No. 3, they saw the complainant, a woman of 60 years of age, sitting at the doorway with a number of girls and men, talking.

A Rush at the Group

Without warning, the accused suddenly made a rush at the group. The girls, being agile, managed to run away, but the complainant, who was infirm and walked with difficulty, was seized by the accused who picked her up and threw her bodily into the street.

A Chinese doctor, who was called, certified that she suffered from shock injuries to the head, and a sprained ankle, and was in danger of death, as the result of the rough handling she received from the accused.

After assaulting the old woman, the accused went to house No. 1, but did not commit any assault there. Then they walked to Lyndhurst-terrace, where they met a chair coolie and one of the two struck him in the face.

Followed by a Sergeant

Proceeding, the Inspector said that a European Police Sergeant, who saw the accused in Caine-road before the assaults, was attracted to them by their rowdy appearance and decided to follow them at a distance. He arrested the accused after the assaults, which, however, he did not see.

There would be six witnesses who would say that they saw the assault on the old woman. The people whom the accused interfered with outside No. 3, Shelley-street, were respectable people, not of the coolie class.

Replying to the Magistrate, the Inspector said that the house was a dwelling, but apparently the accused had thought that it was a brothel.

His Worship said that as there were six witnesses, he was unable to take the case this morning, and would have to fix a date.

A Week's Remand Asked

The Inspector said that in any case he must ask for a week's remand, as the old woman was now in hospital, and would not be able to attend Court to give evidence for some days.

Mr. Hamilton inquired if the accused were kept in Police custody throughout Friday night.

The Inspector replied that they were handed over to a Military escort at midnight, and were at present in Military custody.

Answering another question, the Inspector said that when brought to the charge-room, Shea was under the influence of drink, although he was able to stand and talk.

Doctor's Opinion

Asked if he thought the old woman would be able to appear in Court next Monday, the Inspector replied that he was unable to say at this juncture as the doctor was not prepared this morning to say that she was out of danger yet.

His Worship remanded the case until 10.30 a.m., next Monday, the accused to be kept under close military arrest in the meantime.

ATTEMPT TO KILL CHIANG KAI-SHEK

NIPPED IN THE BUD

PLOT TO OVERTHROW NANKING REGIME

BODYGUARDS ARRESTED

Shanghai, To-day.

Although all details are being withheld by the Chinese authorities, and no information has been given out by the French Police, says the Shanghai "Times," it is reliably reported that a plan to assassinate Marshal Chiang Kai-shek at his house in the French Concession on Friday evening, was nipped in the bud at the last minute.

The conspirators are alleged to be members of Chiang Kai-shek's personal bodyguard. The behaviour of one of the bodyguards aroused sus-

Russian Troops Caught in Chinese Territory

Mukden, To-day.

An official communique from Shanghai states that Dr. Hansel, the German Consul at Harbin, accompanied by four American journalists, arrived at Manchuli on August 30, and witnessed the bombardment of the Chinese lines by Russian artillery and a Russian armoured train entering Chinese territory.—Reuter.

ELECTRIC FITTINGS

STOLEN FROM NEWLY BUILT BUILDING

JAIL WITHOUT OPTION

A Chinese—an old offender—appeared at the Kowloon Police Court to-day before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith charged with ripping new electric fittings from six rooms in the newly-erected building on the Victoria Garden site, in Kowloon. The damage done was $50, the actual wiring costing six dollars.

Det-Sergt. Humphreys stated that the accused was arrested in Yaumati with the wiring. When asked where he got it, he answered: "From another man." After search he admitted that there was no such man. The prosecuting officer added that the accused was the man he had arrested, for stealing wiring from Lyemun Villas in April.

Accused was sentenced to three months' jail with hard labour.

WAKE UP, GERMANY

A BOMB EXPLOSION IN BERLIN

FASCISTI BLAMED

Berlin, Yesterday.

An explosion in the Reichstag building smashed a number of windows.

The police found that a quantity of explosives, which had been stowed away in the ventilating shaft, detonated by means of an alarm clock.

A scrap of paper bearing a Swastika sign, with the words "Wake up, Germany," leads the Police to believe that the outrage was the work of German Fascists.—Reuter.

there might be more serious charges preferred against them.

Ample Warning

Mr. Hamilton also instructed Inspector Murphy to let him know not later than Friday if the old woman would be able to attend Court on Monday, because he wanted to give ample warning to the Military authorities so that they might bring up any witness whom the accused might wish to call. If by Monday the old woman was still unfit to come to Court, then a later date would have to be fixed for hearing of the case.

WORLD COURT

QUESTION OF U.S. ADHERENCE DEFERRED

HOOVER'S ATTITUDE

New York, Yesterday.

The "Herald-Tribune's" Washington correspondent states that the question of American adherence to the World Court is likely to be postponed till late in 1930 as President Hoover is anxious to give a right of way to naval questions and to avoid a serious controversy which might at present be aroused over the World Court.—Reuter's American Service.

CLOCK TOWER

BIG HOUR HAND TWISTED BY TYPHOON

REPAIRS PROCEEDING

Interviewed by a "China Mail" reporter, Mr. G. A. Walker, Traffic Manager of the Kowloon-Canton Railway, said that it was the first time since 1920, that the tower (not the machinery) had been damaged by a typhoon. The actual dials of the clocks are eight feet, six inches in diameter. The hour hand, which is made of copper-sheet and about two feet in length, on the clock facing the Peninsula Hotel, was twisted off, the wind force of the typhoon on August 22 being the strongest on that side, coming direct from Blackhead's Hill.

Mr. Walker added that the repairs would be completed within a week.

LOTTERY MANIA

AGED WOMAN CAUGHT IN A RAID

TRIES TO BLAME SON

An aged Chinese woman stood before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning to face charges of running a Po Pui lottery and having in her possession 883 tickets in her house at 422 Shanghai Street. These were found as the result of a raid carried out by Det-Sergt. Fitches and a Police posse.

Accused denied both charges and said that her son was the chief tenant of the flat, but he has been away since February, 1928, in Canton.

Sergt. Fitches stated that the tickets were found on a table in an empty cubicle at the back of the flat. He produced a rent receipt, which showed that her son had signed it. Two of her tenants gave evidence that they paid their rent to her every month. Both denied knowledge of the tickets. They said that someone lived in the cubicle, but that "someone" they had never seen.

With the tickets were found a Chinese pen and a ball of black ink. The charge of possession was withdrawn, but on the first charge accused was convicted and fined $100, with the option of two months' jail with hard labour. The tickets, which totalled $562 in value were ordered to be destroyed.

Able Seaman James Cutler, who was seriously burnt in a coal-gas explosion in No. 1 hold of the British steamer "Koranton," has died in hospital at Gibraltar.

The British Columbia Government, it is reported, has arranged to place fifty British boys on farms in the province under the Empire settlement scheme.

"RED" SENTENCED

SEDITIONARY CARTOONS AND LITERATURE

The Chinese who was arrested in the Hung Hon boarding house, Connaught-road Central, on "Red Thursday" (August 1) for the unlawful possession of a quantity of seditious literature and cartoons, which he was alleged to have handed to distributing agents, two of whom were convicted last week, was this morning sentenced by Mr. E. W. Hamilton to 18 months' hard labour.

FIVE PLANES LEAVE CANTON

DEPARTURE FOR SHANGHAI VIA AMOY

GENERAL CHAN LEAVES

Canton, To-day.

General Chan Ming-shu departed with Mr. Chang Wai-chang in the same plane, accompanied by four other planes, at 9.30 this morning, for Shanghai via Amoy.

Five thousand people assembled, an enthusiastic demonstration being given in honour of the departing planes.—Canton News Agency.

An Earlier Message

Canton, Yesterday.

The departure of the Canton planes is definitely fixed for tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock. Various organisations are preparing to send the fliers off in a manner that will not be forgotten by them for some time to come. At the same time, advantage is taken of this occasion to arouse the Cantonese to the importance of aviation to the country.

The Chairman, General Chan Ming-shu, will give an address on the aviation ground.

Representatives of citizens' organisations will line up to wish the fliers bon voyage and success in their new field of activities. Squads from different schools and colleges will be represented. In fact, the whole City is going to demonstrate their enthusiasm for aviation in general and for the fliers in particular.

The Commander-in-Chief, General Chan Chai-tong, has publicly called upon the people of Canton to give the fliers the warmest send-off that is possible.—Canton News Agency.

VALUE OF PUBLICITY IN PRESS

JUDGE'S OPINION

REQUEST FOR PROMINENCE TO AN APPLICATION

CHAN KWONG-HING ESTATE

Because, in the interests of all concerned, the widest publicity is desirable, his Honour the Chief Justice (Sir Henry Gollan, C.B.E.) made another request this morning to representatives of the English Press in the Colony to give prominence to certain matters.

Evidence was given in the vernacular papers and in the "Government Gazette" that an application was to be made in the Supreme Court, Original Jurisdiction, to-day. His Lordship observed that reference (in the news) to the proceedings might "be more effective than the advertisements, although such advertisements were necessary."

In order that such publication shall take effect, his Lordship ordered an adjournment.

The case concerned the estate of Mr. Chan Kwong-hing, alias C. K. Hing, alias Charles Chin (Chan Hing).

Widow Plaintiff

His widow and administratrix of his estate under Letters granted by the Court, a foreign lady, Mrs. Edith Weightman Hing, of No. 9, Hart Avenue, Kowloon, was plaintiff.

Defendants were the Man San Knitting Factory, manufacturers, and Mr. Chan Chung-oh, merchant, a partner therein, of No. 188, Portland-street, Kowloon.

Mrs. Hing's claim was for an account to be taken of the assets and liabilities of the factory; also payment of the amount found due to her on taking of such account.

Her husband died on November 13, 1926. For some years previously, he was managing partner of the factory. Shortly after his death, the factory went into liquidation; and the second defendant and Au Tit-sang were appointed liquidators.

"Pui Leung"

On Mr. Hing's death, among a number of share certificates found in his safe was one for 40,000 $1 shares (Nos. 7,334 to 47,333) in the factory, the capital of which was $131,707.

It was also asserted in the statement of claim that, in respect of these 40,000 shares, a dividend book and a partnership book, in the name of "Pui Leung," had been issued by the factory.

Without an order from the Court, the liquidators refused to account to plaintiff who therefore claimed (a) a declaration that the deceased was the absolute owner of the 40,000 shares; (b) an account of the partnership; and (c) an order that the liquidators pay plaintiff (as administratrix) the amount due by the firm in respect of such holding.

A Fancy Name

In the statement of defence, defendants stated that they admitted the allegations with certain exceptions, one being that the 40,000 shares were the property of Chan Kwong-hing.

Mr. F. C. Jenkin, C.B.E. (instructed by Messrs. Wilkinson & Grist) mentioned that deceased had five children by plaintiff and that he gave each of them an English and a Chinese name.

Among the share certificates found in his safe were some in his own name and some in his children's names.

"Pui Leung," said counsel, "was a fancy name which deceased fancied for himself. He intended to bestow it on his next son."

Consecutive Numbers

There is no issue as to the shares in deceased's own name and his children's names—particularly if the issue in the present case is established—the fact that all the share certificates being found together being mentioned as corroborative evidence.

An account of all the holdings has been rendered by the liquidators.

Mr. Jenkin pointed out that all the share certificates numbering from 1 to 47,333 consecutively were held by Mr. Hing; from 1 to 2,333 being in his own name, then came a batch in his children's name, and from 7,334 to 47,333 in the name of "Pui Leung," also 600 shares in "Pui Leung" and the numbers which he acquired subsequently.

ITALIAN LINERS

CONTRACTS FOR ADRIATIC AND LIGURIAN YARDS
PROBABLE SIZE AND SPEED

As briefly announced in "The Journal of Commerce," according to a declaration made by the president of the board of administration of the Lloyd Sabaudo "Marchese de la Penne," an important agreement has been concluded between that company and the Navigazione Generale Italiana concerning the construction of the new Italian superliners. Two liners of over 40,000 tons each will be built as soon as possible in Italian yards, the naval architects of the two companies having already drawn up plans, while the Lloyd Sabaudo for some time past has been in consultation with the leading shipbuilding companies with regard to the construction of these vessels.

There were several difficulties to be overcome before a decision could be made. The Italian mercantile marine, in order to face German competition after the completion of the "Bremen" and the "Europa," will be obliged to build superliners of over 40,000 tons. But for their construction the aid of the Government was considered essential. The Navigazione Generale Italiana proposed building immediately one of these superliners, while the Lloyd Sabaudo and the Casati, associated since July of last year with the Navigazione Generale in the passenger traffic with America, intimated that they would each build another superliner, and requested from the Government similar aid and similar facilities to those asked by the N.G.I. As three superliners of over 40,000 tons each were not believed to be required at the present, considerable discussion has taken place with regard to the location of the new ships, construction in the signing of the agreement, as announced by the "Marchese de la Penne" whereby the N.G.I. and Lloyd Sabaudo are each to order a new liner.

Loans for Construction
The two new superliners will be built in Italian yards to obtain the aid of the Shipping Credit Institute (Istituto di Credito Navale), which grants loans corresponding to 60 per cent. of the value of the ship at a rate of interest of 2 1/2 per cent. also the recently-established "premi" for speed for ships having a speed of over 14 knots.

According to the best information, the superliner of the Navigazione Generale Italiana will be named "Guglielmo Marconi" and will be built by a yard of the Ligurian coast. That of the Lloyd Sabaudo will be named "Conte Azzurro" and will be built by the Stabilimento Tecnico Triestino, who also built the same owners' "Conte Grande." The cost of the two vessels is estimated to be about 300 to 350 million paper lire. It is reported that the vessels will have a length of 245 metres (over 800 feet), gross tonnage of 42-45,000 tons, and speed 27-28 knots, with a service speed of 25 knots. The engines will be high-pressure Parsons turbines of the type used in the new liners of the Canadian Pacific and in the Ausonia, of the Societa Italiana dei Servizi Marittimi, with a horse-power greater than that of the Bremen and Europa. The two vessels will be used on the passenger service to New York, but may also be diverted to the South American service. As yet these details are unofficial, but the two companies state that an official communication will be made as soon as possible.

I am also informed that the Ansaldo Shipbuilding Co., Sestri Ponente, is endeavouring to reach a settlement of the questions pending with the Navigazione Generale Italiana concerning the construction of the liners "Roma" and "Augustus" to improve its prospects of obtaining the contract for the "Guglielmo Marconi."

LIGHTHOUSES

BETTER PROTECTION OF SHIPS NEEDED
INTERNATIONAL CO-OPERATION

Shipowners, says "Syren," have been for some years keenly alive to the advantage of considering problems from the international standpoint, evidence of which is afforded by the growing support given to the work of the International Shipping Conference and the Baltic and White Sea Conference. The value of such deliberations to the shipping industry is proved by the importance which is attached to them by the leading shipowners of most of the maritime countries, for in the pooling of knowledge, followed by uniformity of action as far as the respective Governments will permit, lies the best hope of the removal of obstacles to the free flow of trade and shipping.

The Lighthouse Conference just concluded is the latest development in the direction of international co-operation. Hitherto the lighthouse authorities, except for the informal exchange of views between individual members from different countries, have worked more or less independently. The initiative was taken by the Corporation of Trinity House, and the step is one upon which that venerable institution is to be congratulated. Their action shows that, however well satisfied they themselves might at one time have been with the work they had accomplished, they were not so foolish as to suppose that the monopoly of good ideas and energetic action could be confined to one country. The conference was not a diplomatic one, though it was attended by representatives of the Admiralty, the Board of Trade and the General Post Office. The delegates in the main were representatives of lighthouse authorities and lighthouse engineers from all over the world, the welcome to the delegates being given by the Duke of Connaught, Master of Trinity House. His Royal Highness, in a reference to the duty of lighthouse authorities in guarding ships and mariners and their passengers and cargoes, pointed out that within the last few years one of the greatest advances to the well-equipped vessel had been evolved in the form of direction-finding by wireless, and the establishment round the Coast of wireless beacons by means of which the mariner could fix his position and thereby relieve his mind to the extent, particularly during fog, of the uncertainty of the time of the Conference was devoted to the consideration of papers by the delegates. One of the many interesting experiments carried out in Great Britain was that at the Cumbrae Lighthouse, on the Clyde, of broadcasting by wireless telephone the emitted sound signal of the diaphone, so that a navigator might calculate his distance from the signal by determining the interval of time between the reception of the wireless and the sound signal. Among the other improvements and works accomplished by the Corporation of Trinity House are the introduction of four lighthouses of electric incandescent filament lamps of 3 to 4 kw. with the current generated in situ. Automatic features have been introduced in the equipment to enable the lighting apparatus to be left unattended. Four wireless fog signals have been established, and four more are in course of erection. In the United States, it is interesting to note, reinforced concrete has been extensively used in the construction of lighthouses. Electricity has been adopted for lighthouse illumination where practicable, both in attended and unattended lights; else where, unattended lights, further progress has been made there with the provision of wireless fog signals, and some stations have been synchronised as to sending times by placing them under clock control. Air oscillators, electrically-operated, are being experimented with for sound signals, and several diaphone fog signals have been installed. Some American buoys are fitted with prismatic reflectors which can be illuminated by a ship's searchlight. In Denmark the illuminant at eight lighthouses has been altered from an electric incandescent filament lamp, while one lighthouse has been equipped with an electric motor syren. France has been experimenting with a view to controlling the automatic working of an acetylene gas fog signal by wireless. Among other countries the Netherlands are to the fore in regard to wireless beacons, wireless fog signals and wireless telephones in light vessels. Altogether, the Conference revealed very remarkable progress in many directions with a view to rendering navigation safer, more certain, and the extent to which unattended lights have become possible through the march of science; to say nothing of the economies, will perhaps be reflected in a reduction in the dues shipowners are called upon to pay.

THE "VESTRIS" INQUIRY

In the House of Commons Mr. Thomas Lewis asked the President of the Board of Trade if he would state the amount of legal fees paid or payable by the Government in respect of the Board of Trade Inquiry into the sinking of the steamer "Vestris," and if he would say to whom they were paid or payable.

Mr. W. Graham replied that the Court had power to deal with the question of costs, and they had not yet delivered their judgment. Until this had been done it was impossible to say what amount of costs will fall to be paid by the Government. It is anticipated that the judgment will be delivered towards the end of the present month.

R.M.S.P. AFFAIRS

VISCOUNT ST. DAVIDS TO RESIGN
CHAIRMEN'S CRITICISM

The following is the text circular sent by Viscount St. Davids in his capacity as joint trustee with the Duke of Abercorn to the Five per cent. Debenture stockholders in the Royal Mail Steam Packet Company, which was referred to by Lord Kylsant, chairman of the latter company, when presiding over the annual meeting of the Argentine Navigation Company in London.

You have received a circular from the company calling a meeting for the purpose of appointing the Midland Bank Executor and Trustee Company, Ltd., to be trustee, jointly with myself, in the place of the Duke of Abercorn, who, according to the circular, has intimated his intention to resign. A copy of this circular was sent to me on August 8, and this was the first intimation I received of the company's proposal. I was not consulted as to the suitability of the proposed trustees, though that, of course, is entirely a matter for you to decide. I am much concerned by the remarks of the auditor as published in the last report of the company, coupled as they were with his resignation, and my solicitors, upon my instructions, accordingly wrote and asked that I might be allowed to have an interview with the auditor and discuss the accounts with him, with a view to arriving at the true position of the company. There is, unfortunately, in the trust deed no provision which gives me the right to obtain this information from the auditor, and up to the present permission has been refused.

The last issue of £2,000,000 of Five per cent. Second Debenture stock was made without my knowledge, and the first intimation I had of it was seeing the prospectus in the newspaper, with my own name on it. Here, again, the trust deed does not provide that any notice of a new issue should be given to the trustees, and apparently the company were acting within their legal rights, but, naturally, subscribers to the issue who saw my name on the prospectus would be justified in thinking that the issue was made with my knowledge and assent, and it was only after much hesitation, and taking expert advice, that I decided, perhaps unwisely, not to make the facts public.

It had not been my intention to address you until my efforts to obtain information had reached some definite conclusion, but, since the company has chosen the present moment to effect a change of trustees, I have thought it advisable to make you acquainted with the present state of affairs.

I take this opportunity also of pointing out that the objections which exist to a trustee holding also the post of a director apply in much the same way to the case of a trustee for Second Debentures, who is also a trustee for First Debentures. Such is the situation with regard to myself, who am a trustee for both issues, and it is not difficult to conceive circumstances in which my duty to you would conflict with my duty to the holders of the First Debenture stock. My idea, therefore, is that, in the autumn, I shall ask you to relieve me of my duties, and at the same time suggest to you a successor whom I shall regard as at least as competent as myself.

PHANTOM TREASURE

MERCHANT YIELDS TO AMERICAN'S ROMANTIC TALE

FALSE PRETENCES CHARGE

The trial was resumed before Judge Gregory, K.C., at the Old Bailey recently, of Edward Emile Jochen, an American citizen, who is charged with obtaining from Mr. Marie Auguste Jacques Penellier, a bullion merchant of Gray's Inn-road, W.C., a cheque for £1,000 by false pretences, and with stealing the cheque.

The prosecution has stated that Jochen represented that he had in the ship a cargo of silver worth £5,000,000, and that Mr. Penellier gave a cheque in connection with a contract to purchase.

Jochen, giving evidence, said that he entered into a contract with Mr. Penellier for the disposal of the silver, but received a higher offer for the silver from Paris, and agreed to return the £1,000 to Mr. Penellier and to pay him 2 per cent. on the net sales.

Cross-examined, Jochen declared that the treasure ship was on the high seas up to the day he was arrested, but that he did not wish to divulge its name. The vessel had been afloat eighteen months, and the owners of the silver cargo paid the wages of the crew, amounting to nearly $800 a month.

The owners were in Texas, Mexico and California. They included Mr. Adolph Roasas, Colonel Gomez and his family, and the Mexican Minister in Spain.

LINER TRAGEDY

LITTLE BOY'S PATHETIC PARTING
"MUMMY KISSED ME"

San Francisco, Saturday.
"Mummy kissed me before she threw me," wailed Hollis Pifer, aged six, the only child survivor of the "San Juan," which was sunk in collision with an oil tanker on Friday, when found aboard the tanker. His mother flung him there as the vessel struck the ship and then parted. She perished with the other holiday-makers, whose death roll is still mounting.

The Los Angeles and the San Francisco Navigation Company have filed two suits totalling $1,800,000 against the Standard Oil Company, alleging that the tanker "Dodd" rammed their liner, the "San Juan," that the tanker was travelling at a high speed, and that the crash was the result of negligence and failure to keep an adequate watch aboard the "Dodd."

—Reuter.
[The coastal passenger steamer "San Juan" voyaging from San Francisco to Los Angeles, with 55 passengers and a crew of 45, was sunk in a collision with the Standard Oil tanker "S.C.T. Dodd," off Pigeon Point, California. Sixty-five persons are believed to have been drowned.]

TERRORISM AT SEA

DESPERATE MADMEN FIGHT LINER'S CREW

U.S. "MILLIONAIRES"

Five passengers who are stated to have gone mad during the voyage were handed over to the police at Naples on the arrival of the Italian motor-ship "Vulcania" from the United States.

According to the captain's report, the madmen spread terror throughout the third-class party of the ship when they suddenly became demented. They attacked other passengers, who took refuge in their cabins.

The captain and members of the crew overcame the madmen after a violent struggle and locked them into separate cabins.

When the five men were taken off the ship they were quite calm, and believed themselves to be American millionaires making a pleasure trip.

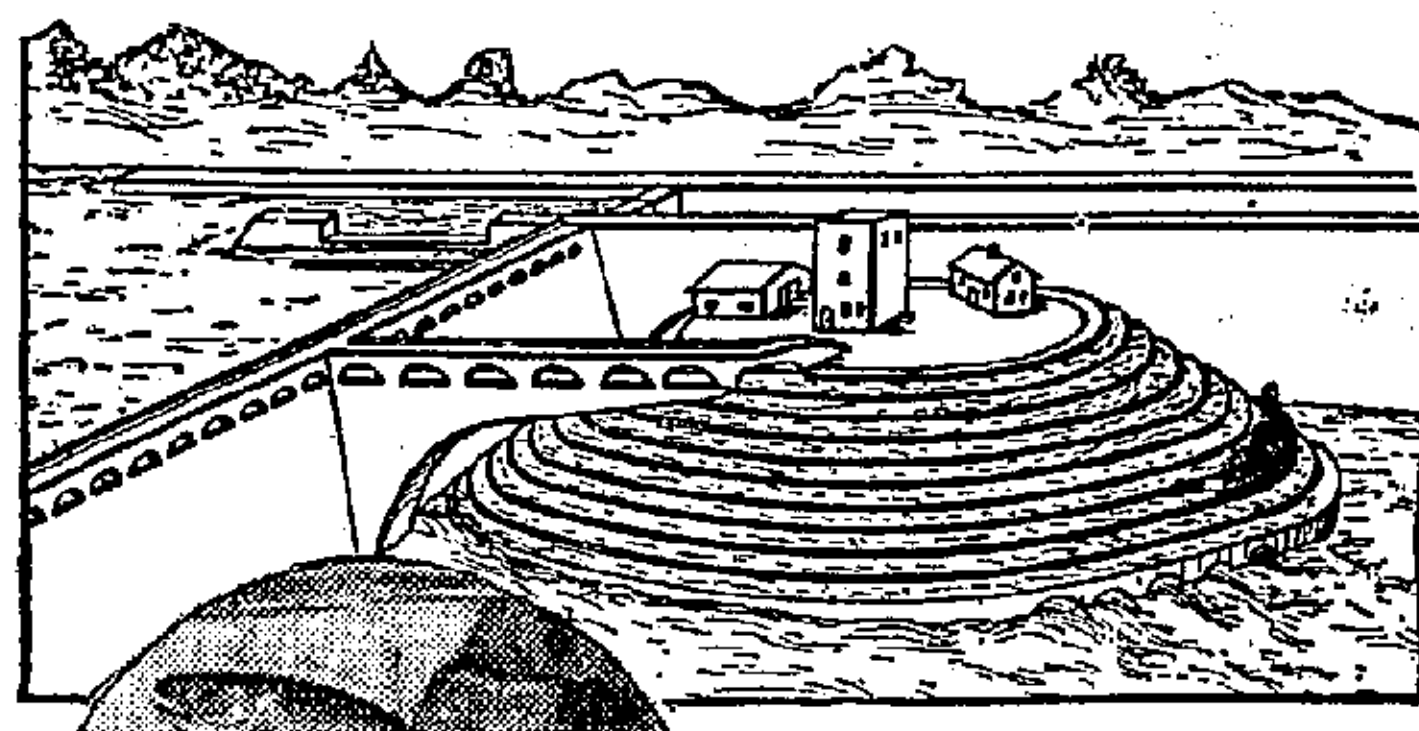

The "Vulcania" is a ship of 23,970 tons, owned by the "Cosulich" Societa Triestina di Navigazione.

M. P. SHANGHAIED

FOUGHT MALAYAN PIRATES LONG AGO!

Mr. Jim Setton, the septuagenarian M.P. for St. Helens, is, according to a "Daily Mail" writer, the only M.P. ever to have been engaged in a "scrap" with pirates and the only M.P. ever to have been shanghaied. The affair with the pirates was staged off Malaya half a century ago, when half a dozen show loads of bloodthirsty villains bore down on the little schooner in which he was sailing. With muskets and axes and crowbars, however, they were beaten off. He was shanghaied a year or so earlier at San Francisco, and forced to do a six months' voyage that he did not want.

STAIRCASE TO GET OVER DAMS

HOW can you expect a poor fish to get upstream to its spawning grounds, or a baby fish to go downstream from its birthplace when it has to climb over a man-made dam?
As a matter of fact, that has been one of the most trying problems of the fish world for a long time. Now man, who built the dam, has had a stroke of conscience, and invented a stairway whereby the plodding fishes can get to their destination.
Invented by Frank W. Province of Camas, Washington, the new fishway has a supporting base in

CHINA SEA TYPHOON

CAUSES "ALMOST A GALE" IN HONG KONG

COOLIE SLIPS, HITS A CAR

"Dirty weather" prevailed on Saturday night and it was "almost blowing a gale" in the harbour towards midnight, so much so that when the river steamboats arrived they experienced some difficulty in berthing alongside their respective wharves.

At the height of a heavy rain-storm after the dinner hour, there was a nasty accident in Queen's-road Central, at the foot of Graham-street. A middle-aged coolie had a rather substantial round bamboo basket blown away. This receptacle travelled fast along the slippery road surface and the coolie fell, sustaining injuries to his head which caused him to bleed. His fall threw him against a private motor car, a back wheel of which passed over his leg.

HONG KONG TIDE

The tide-table given below has been obtained by aid of the Tide-predicting Machine, which includes 40 components for the better prediction of tides, from the result of the analysis of the tidal observations, taken at the Kowloon tidal observatory under the direction of Dr. Dobereck during the years 1897, 1898 and 1899.

The times and heights are given for Kowloon; but they may be used for the Victoria Naval Yard and Aberdeen, the differences being very small.

The times of high and low-water must not be considered to coincide with the times of slack-water and change of current, the two phenomena being quite distinct.

JEWS IN PALESTINE

The Jews are a long-suffering people. From the time of Moses to the troublous days of ecclesiastical strife in Europe during the dark ages, down to our own century, the "chosen race" have undergone torture and debasement. They have been persecuted by their Christian friends, who have betrayed their trust, and condemned on false charges because men hated and feared them so. Yet they have triumphed; a dominant race, whose persistence and hard-bargaining have driven others from the field of competition. Possessing the same unconquerable vitality which delivered them from the hands of the Egyptians, they have made the world their home, and have given birth to men of power and genius like Lord Disraeli and Baron Rothschild, two men who for a vital period in European politics, held the reins of governance in their hands—the one by sheer mental skill, the other by the skill of finance.

Britain and the British Empire have ever been a "home to the Jews," and thousands of our semitic brothers fought by our side in the Great War, so that in our good-humoured contempt for the Jew there is not a little honest admiration. We admit openly that he is a better business man than ourselves, and we recognise his indispensability. At the same time, we were anxious that he should return to the land of his forefathers, and there recollect the scattered members of his race. Israel Zangwill wrote insistently pleading with the Jew to return to Jerusalem, and the leaders of the Zionist movement have been active in voicing their agreement with this policy. It has had the support of the British Government and of that great statesman, Lord Balfour, who has promised protection of the Jew in his own land, and under whose Declaration of November, 1927, "His Majesty's Government view with favour the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people." The British Government is not sentimental. It rarely commits an action the results of which are unforeseen, and we may reasonably assure ourselves that in assisting the Jews the Government is relying on their loyalty and patriotism to the British Empire, realising that their presence as a united race in the Near East will act as a convenient balance between the contingent races. In a way, the Balfour Declaration is a master stroke of diplomacy, but the Arabs have only too clearly seen through the thin disguise. They realise that the new Jewish regime, under the fatherly protecting arm of the British lion, would be a dangerous menace to any enterprises that they might be backed to undertake.

The British administration has been accused by the Indian Moslems of "partiality to the Jews." It has no reason to deny it. The pledge was given to restore Palestine to its ancient peoples, and whether there be an underlying motive or not, great Britain will not go back on her word. It is likely that others in the background are also interested in the British-Palestine policy, and a settlement, accordingly, may not, unfortunately, be attained before further blood is shed. If the present Government maintains as firm a stand as it did, through Mr. Snowden, at the Reparations Conference, turning deaf ears to self-interested criticism, the Jewish people will not be slow to show their gratitude in an even deeper loyalty to the British Empire.

During the week-end one case of enteric fever (Chinese) was notified. The recent case of plague will form the subject of a statement by the Chairman of the Sanitary Board at to-morrow afternoon's meeting. Mr. Raymond Shea has arrived in the Colony from Kuala Lumpur and joined the editorial staff of the "Sunday Herald" and the "China Mail."

Amongst passengers who sailed for Home by the s.s. "Kashmir" on Saturday, were Mrs. J. E. Hancock, widow of Mr. J. E. Hancock, of Messrs. Dodwell's, and her son.

A statement on the proposed closing of wells will be made by the President of the Sanitary Board at to-morrow's meeting.

A Chinese woman was fined $100 on default, two months' jail with hard labour, by the Kowloon Magistrate this morning for keeping an undesirable house at 7, Nan King Terrace.

The St. Andrew's Branch of the Scripture Union, will meet the St. Andrew's Church Hall this evening at 6 o'clock, when the speaker will be the Rev. H. A. Wittenbach, M.A., of Canton.

The total output of the Kailan Mining Administration's mines for the week ending August 17, 1929, amounted to 88,696 tons, and the sales during the period to 60,934 tons.

A Chinese was fined $5 or seven days' jail by the Kowloon Police Magistrate to-day for the theft of four planks of useless wood from the Tung Fook Matched, Kowloon Tong.

For the theft of a quantity of flower bulbs from a gardener on the Taiipo Road a Chinese was sentenced to one month's jail with hard labour by the Kowloon Police Magistrate on August 30.

Ships in harbour at noon to-day included the C.P.S. "Empress of Asia," which has just returned from Manila, the Glen Line "Glenamoy," a Dollar Steamship Line, "President Pierce," and the N.Y.K. "Korea Maru."

Lo Kam, a fitter employed at the Kowloon Docks, has been admitted to the Kowloon Hospital suffering from crushed fingers caused through his right hand being caught in a drilling machine at which he was working.

Mr. E. C. Thomas, of the Diocesan Boys' School, and Mr. T. J. Price, of the St. Stephen's Boys' College, were delayed for a few days at Yunnanfu, owing to military movements, but were able later to proceed on their trip up the Yangtze under a small escort.

Suffering from a fractured right arm, a workman of the Kowloon Dock, named Au Wo, is a patient in the Kowloon Hospital. He received his injury as the result of a fall when a wire rope broke while he was engaged with others in erecting a skeleton staging.

Fung Sang, the 12-year-old Chinese girl, who was severely injured through being knocked down by the China Motor Bus Co.'s bus No. 114, in Reclamation-street, Kowloon, on Saturday evening, died at the Kowloon Hospital at 5 o'clock yesterday morning.

During "rush" hours, early yesterday morning, an smash, while waiting for the day's supply in the building department of the Dairy Farm, Ice and Cold Storage Co., Ltd., in Kowloon, fainted—luckily into a chair, with the help of water. She soon revived, and "business as usual" was resumed.

A Chinese named Chi Fat was fined by the Kowloon Magistrate $10 with the alternative of a fortnight in jail with hard labour, for the theft of 34 bricks from a matchbox in On Yau Street, Shamshuipo. Accused had been in the Kowloon Hospital for over a week, and it was learned that he suffered from pleurisy.

Three Chinese—two women and a man—appeared at the Kowloon Police Court this morning, on a charge of kidnapping a small Chinese girl. At the request of Inspector James, who indicated that the S.C.A. is to prosecute, the Magistrate remanded the case to Friday.

For the theft of 80 bricks (valued at 80 cents), from a vacant piece of ground at the rear of the Tin Hau Temple, an unemployed Chinese was sentenced to one month's hard labour by Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith, at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning. Accused had served a week in jail last month.

For the unlawful possession of 20 tins of raw opium, which was found in a basket which he was carrying openly, as he descended from the Canton train last evening, a Chinese was fined $600 or, in default, three months' hard labour by Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at the Kowloon Magistracy this morning.

TIMELY RESCUE

EUROPEAN BATHER IN A PERILOUS POSITION

A European bather was in difficulty whilst bathing at Tsing Lung Tau beach on Saturday, but through the timely assistance of another bather a fatality was averted.

The first indication that something was wrong was when a Chinese lady bather was seen to be in difficulty. Her husband and a friend helped her ashore. Following this, Mr. D. A. Macintosh of the C.P.R., was seen to be struggling in the water, and then he shouted out for help. The current was against him and, in spite of his struggles, he made no headway.

His shouts for help brought Mr. A. Spary, who was in a matched short distance away. He took hold of a life belt and plunged into the water to go to the rescue of Mr. Macintosh. After a desperate struggle, he succeeded in towing Mr. Macintosh to shore. Mr. Spary, who is an overseer in the P.W.D. and a keen playing member of the Kowloon Football Club, was the recipient of hearty congratulations afterward from those in the vicinity.

COMEDY COMPANY

FORBES RUSSELL'S EASTERN TOURS

OPENING ON SEPTEMBER 12.

The New Forbes Russell Comedy Company (1929) are arriving in Hong Kong, after a successful tour of India and the Middle East, and will open for a short season at the Theatre Royal on Thursday, September 12.

Mr. Russell brings with him most of the latest London Comedy successes, by the most popular authors of the day, all of which have had phenomenal runs in London.

The leading lady will be Miss April Vivian, who will be remembered for her delightful work with the Company during their last visit. She is supported by Miss Isobel Pargiter, who has been leading lady at the Bath and Liverpool Repertory Theatres, and also a charming ingenue, Miss Heather Angel.

The juvenile lead is Mr. John Manuel, late leading man with Seymour Hicks, and Mr. Alec Alexander, striking actor, who has just finished playing in "The Ringers," in the English Provinces.

The Opening Play

The opening play will be a three-act comedy, entitled "By Candle Light," which has been adapted from the Viennese original by Capt. Harry Graham and was first produced at the Prince of Wales Theatre. An indication of its popularity is the fact that the box office receipts amounted to the enormous figure of $36,000 in less than six months. Owing to its phenomenal success, it has been transferred to the "Criterion," and is still playing to capacity houses.

Other Plays

Other plays to be staged during the season are "Her Cardboard Lover," by P. G. Wodehouse; "The Patsy," by Geo. P. Cole; the well-known play, "The Second Mrs. Tranter," by Sir Arthur Pinero; "The March Hares," by H. W. Gribbles; and "Good Morning, Bill!" also from the pen of P. G. Wodehouse.

Mr. Russell is bringing with him a new style of scenery which is coming into great popularity in the West-End, and each production will be magnificently staged.

The plans are now open at Montreux.

PRESS PUBLICITY

No Adverse Claim

The only real complication arising out of the certificate issued in 1916 for the 40,000 shares was that on the same day, for identical share numbers, a dividend book was issued in the name of "Pui Leung," added Mr. Jenkin.

In reply to his Lordship, Mr. H. G. Sheldon (instructed by Messrs. Johnson, Stokes & Master), for the defendants, said that his clients would be satisfied on proof.

Liquidation had lasted three years, Mr. Jenkin continued, and the liquidators were not aware of any adverse claims to the 40,000 shares. This had been established in letters between the solicitors concerned. Messrs. Wilkinson & Grist had also caused advertisements to be inserted in certain local vernacular papers and in the "Government Gazette."

There had been no response.

Plaintiff's Evidence

Mrs. Hing then gave evidence. She said that the names of her children were Edna, Sarah, Alice, Gertrude and Ivan. She was not aware of their Chinese names because her husband had given them the latter after she left him in 1916. She returned to Europe in 1921 on account of her health and came back to Hong Kong in 1928. "He told me," she added, referring to her husband, "that he had shares, besides those in his own name, in the name of 'Pui Leung.'"

Chan Ng She (Sam-mui), deposed that she was deceased's concubine, becoming such on September 26, 1916. She and her husband lived at No. 270, Portland-street, which was next door to and had a door communicating with the Man San Knitting Factory. Her husband was managing partner and "Pui Leung" was one of his aliases. She knew that, she replied to Mr. Jenkin, because her husband told her of it himself.

No Cross-Examination

Mr. To Tin-kuo, clerk and interpreter to Messrs. Wilkinson & Grist, gave evidence in connection with the insertion of advertisements in Chinese newspapers from August 20 to this morning.

Mr. D. H. Blake, partner in Messrs. Wilkinson & Grist, solicitors, etc., said that his firm had received no notice of any adverse claim to the shares, in response to the advertisements, nor in response to a notification in the "Government Gazette." It was possible that the factory itself might have a claim against the shares, Mr. Blake stated, but only for moneys advanced and not in respect of the shares.

All witnesses were not cross-examined by counsel for defendants. On the case for plaintiff being closed, his Lordship made the observations quoted, and ordered an adjournment until 2.30 p.m. on Friday, September 13, adding to Mr. Jenkin "If nothing transpires by then, I shall give you judgment."

In reply to his Lordship, counsel announced that costs had been agreed.

ROOSTERS' FUN

UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT FOR COLONY

A CLEVER TROUPE

Torcat's performing Roosters opened their show at the Queens Theatre yesterday and attracted full houses at three shows, the audience at the special 2.30 matinee being mostly children who greatly enjoyed the performance, and it did one's heart good to hear their shrill cries of delight.

"Blanco" opened the show with a ladder climbing turn and then fully a dozen others were put through their paces in a succession of smart "stunts" which were all well applauded. "Beauty" and "Betty," the cyclists, performed on a tight wire in a marvellous balancing turn which thrilled the kiddies and the grown-ups, too. "Phoenix," "Tata," and "Yellow" also proved to be graceful tight rope walkers.

Mr. Torcat and Coco in the Roosters' Troupe at the Queen's Theatre.

Other clever "Stars" of the troupe were "Dick," "Pettit," "Jap" and "Daddy" the acrobats; "White" the high jumper; "Toto" the globe walker; "Marquis" and "Duc" the hoop walkers; "Joe" the richia "boy"; "Fada" the balancer; "Tom" the car driver and "Boulotte" his passenger.

The Inimitable Clown

The fun makers of the show were "Coco," the little clown rooster who crows at command and is for ever "putting it over," "Caesar," a large fowl of a peaceful disposition who bolts when the little one shows fight, much to the amusement of the audience. "Coco" proved such a rowdy that Mr. Torcat eventually had to put him in the "Chicken Jail."

"Jack," the rooster in dress suit, hat and goggles was also a good laughter merchant. He acted as referee in the "Dempsey-Turner" fight in which "Mars" and "Mercury" were the "bugs." Poor "Jack" was the "receiver" in the roped square and was several times knocked out of the ring by the boxers, whose one purpose seemed to go for the "ref."

In conjunction with the rooster show was "The Rejuvenation of Aunt Mary," a laughable picture with plenty of funny situations, in which the principals were May Robson, Phyllis Haver, and Harrison Ford.

"THE FARMER'S DAUGHTER"

Light, Gay Comedy at the World

A light, gay comedy, inclined to be rather silly at times, is being shown at the World Theatre to-day for final screenings, called "The Farmer's Daughter."

It concerns life on a farm in the country, and the adventures of the farmer's daughter. The story principally centres around the latter, who is a green-horn, reared on the farm, and whose ambition is to travel. She meets a city-man—a crook—and the fun begins. Comical situations, one developing from another, cause much merriment, but interwoven is a crook story in which the craftiness of the villain, is finally defeated by the humbleness of the farmer's daughter.

Barbara Becham, a new comedian "find" enacts the leading feminine "role" perfectly, and is hugely responsible for the pictures' success. Others of note support her, including many well-known mirth-makers.

"FLAMING FOREST"

Thrilling Film at the Majestic

The screen version of James Oliver Curwood's "Flaming Forest," is showing at the Majestic Theatre finally to-day.

The leading roles are enacted by Renee Adoree and Antonio Moreno. Interesting and thrilling throughout, the film deals with the period when law and order were not known in North-west Canada (1869-1874).

Antonio Moreno is seen as Sergt. Carrigan in the N.W.M.P., which comes to save the town from the hands of Lagarde (Oskar Berzi), who has murdered Renee's parents and took her to his camp.

The bandit sets the forests on fire. The Sergeant and Renee are rescued by the mounted police—and the end of the story is as it should be.

Jewellery valued at over $12,000 was stolen from Mrs. Patricia MacMahon, an English visitor to Nice, whose home address is in London. Among the missing jewellery is a pearl necklace valued at $10,000.

One hundred and fifty members of the Washington Roman Catholic tour who are on a visit to Ireland were landed at Galway by the White Star liner "Doric."

CHINA & RUSSIA

EFFORT TO SETTLE THE DISPUTE

SOVIET WILLING

Moscow, Saturday.
M. Litvinoff, in advising the German Ambassador of the Soviet's willingness to sign the joint declaration settling the Sino-Russian disputes stated that the Soviet saw no reason for appointing a new manager and assistant manager of the Chinese Eastern Railway, as proposed in the Chinese draft of the declaration. However, if the Chinese Government appointed a new chairman of the Directorate to replace the present chairman, on whom lay the responsibility of a violation of State affairs on the railway, as established by the treaties, the Soviet Foreign Commissariat, in conformity with the Soviet's unchanging peace policy, and meeting with the wish of the Chinese Government, would bring before the Soviet Government the question of appointing a new manager and assistant manager, such appointment to be simultaneous with the signing of the joint declaration.

The Text

The text of the Sino-Russian declaration, as amended by Russia, lays down the condition that both parties appoint representatives to a conference to settle all questions pending between them, in conformity with the 1924 Agreement, and particularly to agree on the conditions for a redemption of the Chinese Eastern Railway as laid down in Article nine of the Peking Agreement. Both parties believe that the position of the Chinese Eastern Railway, which developed after the dispute, must be settled in accordance with the Peking and Mukden agreements of 1924, on the understanding that all alterations shall be settled by the above mentioned conference.

The Soviet Government recommends that a manager and assistant manager for the railway be immediately appointed by directorate. The Soviet Government will instruct the local authorities, strictly to observe the conditions of Article six of the 1924 Agreement. Both parties will immediately release all those who were arrested in connection with the present incident, or since May 1.

The Belgian Concession

Tientsin, Saturday.
Baron Guillaume, who has been negotiating on the retrocession of the Belgian Concession, to-day signed the documents, the main points of which are recognition of private property, arrangements for a land tax, and the payment of the municipal debts of the Chinese. The agreement becomes effective after a ratification by both countries.

Alleged Settlement

Nanking, Saturday.
In an interview with Reuter this morning, the Foreign Office spokesman declared that Nanking had received no statement from the Chinese Minister in Berlin regarding the alleged settlement of the Chinese Eastern Railway issue as reported in messages from Moscow. The spokesman admitted, however, that negotiations in Berlin are proceeding satisfactorily.

GERMANY TO MEDIATE

"The Actual State of Affairs"

Tokyo, Saturday.
It is stated from Mukden that a telegram from Tientsin reports that 15,000 Mukden troops have arrived at Tientsin during the past five days.

A message from Manchuli states that Dr. Heikel, the German Vice-Consul at Shanghai, arrived here and interviewed the Chinese Garrison Commander, Liang Chung Chia, to seek information on the recent clashes between Soviet forces and Chinese border guards. The German consul is expected to proceed to Dalaihor to inspect the actual state of affairs. It is generally believed that Germany is going to mediate between the Soviet and China.

First Army Leaves for Kirin

Mukden, Saturday.
One division of Mukden troops, forming part of the First Army, left for Kirin to-day. General Wang Hsu-shun, commanding the First Army, also left for Kirin.

A Groundless Report

Shanghai, Yesterday.
The Foreign Minister, Dr. C. T. Wang, commenting on reports from Moscow regarding a joint Sino-Russian declaration of a settlement of the Chinese Eastern Railway issue, stated, "The National Government can find no reason to replace the present chairman of the directorate of the railway with a new chairman. The report from certain quarters implying that China has agreed or would agree to such a proposal from the Soviet is absolutely groundless. The question has never been raised, and should Russia put forward this demand, the National Government would find it impossible to accept."

EXPLORER WEDS

SIR HUBERT WILKINS'S ROMANCE

ACTRESS WIFE

Cleveland (Ohio), Saturday.
The famous Australian explorer, Sir George Hubert Wilkins, has married the Australian actress, Miss Suzanne Bennett.—Reuter.

[Sir Hubert Wilkins, who commanded the Detroit Arctic Expedition of 1926-27, and was leader of the Wilkins Australia and Islands Expedition for the British Museum (Natural History) from 1923-25, is 41 years of age. He was photographic correspondent with the Turkish troops during the Balkan War in 1912, and was second in command of Stefansson's Party in the Canadian Arctic Expedition of 1913-17. In May 1917, he was granted a commission in the Australian Flying Corps, and later was seconded to the Military History Department as official photographer, to the close of the War, being mentioned in despatches. In 1919 he was navigator of the Blackburn Kangaroo Aeroplane, England to Australia flight, and was second in command of the British Imperial Antarctic Expedition of 1921. In the following year he joined the Shackleton-Rowett Quest Expedition as naturalist. Sir Hubert Wilkins has written to great deal on natural history and on his adventures in the Polar regions.]

THE 'GRAF' DEPARTS

ZEPPELIN HERO'S GREAT OVATION

"ZEP'S" RECORD

New York, Saturday.
A tumultuous official welcome, accompanied by showers of confetti and paper streamers, was accorded Dr. Hugo Eckener yesterday, when he rode in triumph down Lower Broadway, cheered by a crowd of half a million people, while the airship Los Angeles circled overhead.

Back To Germany

Lakehurst, N.J., Yesterday.
The "Graf Zeppelin" left for Friedrichshafen at 7:18 this morning.—Reuter's American Service.

[The complete world trip occupied only a few hours over 21 days, of which less than 12 days was actual flying time, a new record for round the world travel.]

SCHNEIDER TROPHY

PREPARATIONS FOR GREAT RACE

ATCHERLEY'S SPEED

London, Saturday.
The Admiralty list of the vessels taking anchorages in reserved areas for witnessing the seaplane race for the Schneider Trophy on Saturday next shows that about 100 yachts and private vessels, and five liners, as well as naval ships, will be in the Solent.

The Iron Duke and the aircraft carriers "Argus" and "Furious" will accommodate guests of Government. The flagship of the Italian Admiral is the "Pisa," and two other Italian naval vessels will be in the reserved anchorage for official vessels.

Italian pilots were taken down the course yesterday in a Southampton flying boat. After his return, Lieut. Col. Bernarconi, Commander of the team, said that his pilots liked the course.

Speed Record

At Calshot to-day Flying Officer Atcherley took up a seaplane Supermarine Rolls Royce six, which is one of the British hopes for the Schneider trophy. Superbly handling the machine, Atcherley is estimated to have attained a speed of 350 miles an hour.—British Wireless Service.

[According to newspaper reports on August 22, the greatest speed ever attained in the air, nearly 350 miles an hour, was reached by Flying Officer Waghorn in the Supermarine Rolls Royce monoplane Bine Rocket at Southampton on August 21, in a Schneider Cup practice flight. The race, which is to be held on September 7, will include three British seaplanes.]

BID FOR AIR RECORD

LONG DISTANCE R.A.F. FLIGHT IN AUTUMN

Another attempt to capture the world's non-stop air record will be made this year by the R.A.F. Although the flight from Cranwell (Lines) to India by Squadron-Leader Jones-Williams and Flight Lieut. Jenkins was the longest ever made without a halt by a British machine, it failed by a short distance to exceed the world's record.

On this second attempt, which will be made in early autumn, it is probable that the route between England and South Africa will be selected in preference to that to India. This was the original choice, but bad weather necessitated the alteration.

The Fairey (Napier) monoplane which made the flight to Karachi will again be used.

A strike which has broken out among the woodworkers in the Westphalian district may possibly extend to the whole of Germany.

NOW BUDDHIST

TREBITSCH LINCOLN IN COLOMBO

ALLOWED TO LAND

Colombo, July 27.
The outstanding events of the week were the arrival of Trebitsch Lincoln, the famous ex-spy, and the attempt of the non-official members of the Legislative Council to balance the Budget.

Trebitsch Lincoln's arrival was quite unexpected. He is not altogether unknown in Ceylon as in 1925 he entirely baffled the local Criminal Investigation Department by slipping through their hands under the assumed name of Dr. Leo Tandler, and living in a Buddhist monastery near Colombo for over two months. It was only after Lincoln had left these shores in February, 1926, that the police came to know that one of the world's most sinister figures had outwitted them. Lincoln then arrived with the avowed desire of studying Buddhism and becoming a Buddhist priest. It was with that intention that he entered the monastery. But his plans were cut short by a domestic bereavement which prompted him to leave the Island. One of his sons in England was condemned to be executed, and Lincoln, however, failed in the attempt, and he once more went a-roaming in the world, arriving finally in China.

Promoting Buddhism
This week he arrived in Colombo under his own name and applied to the police to allow permission for him to land. Although he had been refused permission to land either in Hong Kong or Singapore, on his way, the Colombo authorities found no objection to his landing. He was allowed to visit his former abode, the Buddhist monastery, and also see a few of his friends in Colombo.—"Straits Times."

HIGH ADVISER

MR. CHU CHANG-NIEN TO GO NORTH

TRIBUTE TO HIS WORK

It is learned that Chairman Chen Ming-shu and Mr. Chu Chang-nien, the High Adviser to the Provincial Government of Kwangtung, will shortly be leaving Canton for a visit to Shanghai and Nanking, where they are to confer with the high authorities on matters concerning this province.

Mr. Chu has been in Canton for several months and, although the public has not heard much of him, in his quiet, unobtrusive way he has accomplished much for the good of this province.

Minister Chu Chang-nien, who is China's Minister Plenipotentiary to Sweden and Norway, is a native of Kiangsu Province and educated in England at the University of Birmingham. He has held various posts at home and abroad and was one time Secretary to the Legation in London. The year before last, he was appointed Adviser to the Ministry of Communications of the National Government.

An Able Representative
When he was Counsellor, last year, in the Foreign Office at Nanking he assisted Dr. C. T. Wang, the Foreign Minister, in many of the important negotiations. He ably represented Dr. Wang in the negotiations for the settlement of the British Nanking Incident with Sir Sidney Barton and the British Tariff Treaty with Sir Miles Lampson and also other Treaties.

Since April last, he has remained here under instructions from the Central Government, and was appointed High-Adviser to the Provincial Government of Kwangtung.

Future Undecided
Whether Minister Chu will shortly proceed to take up his post in Europe or return to Canton will, we

PRIEST'S WOOLING

DISADVANTAGES OF A
SHAVEN PATE

AN INQUISITIVE LANDLORD

In the city of Kaoyu, on the Grand Canal, north of Yangchow, there lived a Mrs. Wang, the wife of a tanner who had a brother, a bonze in a Buddhist temple, not far from her home. This brother, though he had retired from his dusty world, occasionally paid his sister a visit. On one occasion he was accompanied by a brother bonze, whose clerical name was "Gold Youth." This priest (according to the Chinese Press) no sooner saw his friend's sister than he fell violently in love with her, but, as she had a husband, there was no prospect of the romance coming to fruition. As is well-known, the female is the deadlier of the species and, one day, the woman said to her husband: "We have no prospect of making a comfortable living here. I help with my needle, but our combined efforts only keep the wolf from the door. It would be a much better plan if you were to allow me to go to Shanghai where, owing my good needlework, I could get employment in domestic service and earn as much money as would be a real help to us."

The unsuspecting husband agreed and the wife set out to seek her fortune in this city. She had made secret arrangements with the priest and he, dressed like a layman, accompanied her. They rented part of a house in Nanmatou and lived happily as husband and wife. Unfortunately, the weather being uncomfortably hot, the quondam priest shaved his head on which, like Samson's, the hair had begun to sprout again. The landlord of the house saw the marks of the priest's initiation, which had been burned into his skull, and, taking the couple for dissolute persons, ordered them to leave his house. The priest contended that they paid the rent regularly and it was none of the landlord's business whether he were lay or cleric.

A policeman was called and was on the point of taking them off to the station when the woman's brother, the other priest, turned up. As he was prepared to vouch that all was right, in spite of the tell-tale brand on her pseudo-husband's head, the quarrel was patched up, but there is likely to be a sequel to the story when the real husband learns of his wife's perfidy.

CANADIAN NOTES

Governor John Weeks, of Vermont, recently spoke over the radio network of the Canadian National Railways upon the attractions of his native state.

Canadians own about 60 per cent. of the securities of all enterprises on Canadian soil.

A baby was born on the Confederation Limited of the Canadian National Railways recently when the train was nearing Edmonton, Alberta from the west.

Canadian investments in the United States at the beginning of 1928 amounted to $874,626,000, according to the industrial department of the Canadian National Railways.

Roads in Jasper Park, Alberta, are paved with Athabaska tar sands, taken from the banks of the Athabaska river near Fort McMurray, Alberta.

Minaki Lodge is a summer resort in northern Ontario, situated on a wide arm of the Winnipeg river. It takes its name from the Indian word, meaning "beautiful country."

Mount Edith Cavell, 11,033 feet high, Jasper Park, Alberta, was formerly known as Mount Geikie but was renamed after the war in honour of Nurse Edith Cavell who died succouring soldiers.

With the erection of the new Canadian National Railways terminal in Montreal, that city will have one of the largest terminals on the continent.

1928 was the largest year in the fishing industry of British Columbia exceeding the years 1918 and 1926.

KENT'S OLDEST MAN

MEMORIES OF LONDON NINETY YEARS AGO

Mr. John Edward Taylor, Kent's oldest man, has died in Farnborough Hospital at the age of 105. He had lived under five sovereigns. His home was at Hillside, Green Street Green, near Farnborough.

His wife died about eighteen months ago soon after her 108th birthday. They were the oldest married couple in England and had been married sixty-eight years.

Mr. Taylor was a carpenter and worked twelve hours a day until he was over seventy. He helped to erect the Great Exhibition in Hyde Park in 1851. He recalled a day when the old Duke of Wellington, riding away from Apsley House, shook hands with the workmen, of whom he was one.

He remembered London when it was lighted with smoky oil lamps, when the police wore top hats and white "ducks," and when the night watchmen cried out the hours and the weather, and also remembered seeing men in the stocks at Camberwell.

His recipe for long life was hard work, exercise, fresh air and a contented mind, and he always enjoyed a smoke and a stimulant.

The Royal Marines, at Plymouth celebrated the anniversary of the capture of Gibraltar in 1704 by Sir George Rooke.

CANTON TENNIS

CITIZENS' A.A. MEET SHAMEEN CLUB

AMERICAN TOURNAMENT

Canton, Yesterday.
In a friendly match on their own courts on Shameen this afternoon, the Shameen Lawn Tennis Club lost rather badly to the Canton Citizens' Athletic Association in the Men's Doubles, but won the Ladies' Doubles.

The weather was ideal for tennis, sunny and cool, and a great many spectators from the City as well as of Shameen, attended. Tea was very kindly provided by the ladies of the Committee and the Courts took on quite a gala aspect.

The match for the men took the form of an American Tournament of seven games for each individual match. There were six pairs representing each Club, making a total of 252 games, of which the S.L.T.C. won 89 and the C.C.A.A. 163, nearly double as many. It was unfortunate for the home team that Mr. C. E. Watson was away, as he is, this season, the first player of the Club; several others of the better players were also unable to play. The visitors were at full strength, including such players as Mr. Wong Po-keung and Mr. Ho Chun-man, and there was no question as to their superiority in most departments of the game.

Ladies' Doubles

The Ladies' Doubles was for ordinary match play and the Club pair, Mrs. Moss and Miss Hogg beat Miss Tang Chi-ho and Miss Lee Choy-ying 6-3, 6-2.

Mrs. Moss was for five years the Ladies' Hard Courts Champion of Shanghai and is a beautiful player.

Admiral Chan Chak, who is a keen member of the Canton Citizens' Athletic Association, was unfortunately unable to play for his Club as was intended, owing to Government business. General Wong So, however, was among the visitors; he is a very powerful player.

RESULTS

Ladies' Doubles

Mrs. Moss and Miss Louise Hogg beat Miss Tang Chi-ho and Miss Lee Choy-ying 6-3, 6-2.

KOWLOON DOCK TRIUMPH

Two Clubs Tie in Second Division

In holding up the Craigenower C.C., champions and leaders in the First Division of the Lawn Bowls League, in their march to victory, the Kowloon Dock R.C. of Saturday fulfilled a long-cherished ambition. The Valley team, however, have not been seriously set back by this reverse, as they are still at the head of affairs, but are on equal terms with the Kowloon Bowling Green Club.

By losing to the Bowling Green, the Club de Recreio are practically out of the running for premier honours. The Civil Service C.C., as expected, accounted for the Kowloon C.C., whilst the Police R.C. have added another defeat to their long list of reverses.

In the Second Division, both the Kowloon Bowling Green Club and the Civil Service C.C. won their engagements and have finished their fixtures on equal terms (20 points each). A play-off will be necessary to decide the championship.

Division I

K.D.R.C. v. CRAIGENOWER

On their own ground, the Kowloon Dock R.C. defeated the Craigenower C.C. by 14 shots.

After giving away a single, Punccheon scored a 4 and a 2 against Bradbury. Each side got three shots in the next three heads, and then Punccheon piled on 4-1-1-1 to lead by 13 at the 11th head. Bradbury retaliated and reduced his deficit to only eight shots, his scores including three 3's at the 12th, 14th and 17th heads.

Gray found himself six points in arrears in the first two heads before he notched a single against Basa. The scoring in this rink was particularly low, the best efforts being a couple of 3's by the visitors who won by six shots.

Omar drew first blood in the third rink, but lost by 12 shots to Brown. The former was two points ahead at the 5th head but scored only a single in the next seven attempts. Brown leading by 14-6 at the 12th head. Omar got a 5, but Brown was not to be denied and replied with a 6 at the 16th head.

CIVIL SERVICE v. K.C.C.

At Happy Valley, the Civil Service C.C. defeated the Kowloon C.C. by 13 shots.

In the first rink, Brown started off with a 2 and a 1 but conceded 6 points to Gibson in the next three heads. The home skip drew level at the 7th head. Gibson took the lead again immediately after with a 2, but Brown got away again with a 1 and a 1 and maintained his advantage to win by three shots at the end.

Although Silkstone opened the scoring against Grimmit by a single, it was early evident that the home rink would not be seriously extended as the C.S.C.C. held the upper hand from the 2nd head. At the 14th head, Grimmit was ten shots ahead (19-9) but the visitors gradually reduced this lead by four points.

Taylor ran away with 7 points in the first four heads against Fraser. The visiting skip retaliated with a 3 at the next attempt, only to lose a 1 and a 3 immediately after. At the 11th head, Fraser was only three shots behind. The remainder of the play was very even, Taylor eventually winning by four shots.

RECREIO v. K.B.G.C.

On their own ground, the Club de Recreio lost to the Kowloon Bowling Green Club by four shots.

For the visitors, Gow's quartette, playing in convincing style all the way, and winning by 15 points, "carried" the other two rinks of their side. At the 19th head, Gow was as many as 19 shots ahead of Luz but the home skip notched a 3 and a 1 in the last two heads.

In the Ribeiro-Guy rink, the Portuguese team were never at any time at a disadvantage, although the scores were level (11-11) at the 12th head. In the next nine heads, the home rink scored 12 shots as against 7 by their opponents.

In spite of a 6 at the 10th and a 4 at the 12th head, Russell lost to Yvanovich by six shots, the latter, after being two points behind at the 14th head, piling on nine shots and giving away only one in the last seven heads.

TAIKOO R.C. v. P.R.C.

On their own ground, the Taikoo R.C. defeated the Police R.C. by 22 shots.

The visitors lost on all three rinks, the closest play being seen on the first rink where Mair, who was leading 19-17 at the 10th head, went under by the narrow margin of two shots. Ferguson getting a 1 and a 3 in the last two heads.

Establishing a useful advantage of 12 shots at the 9th head, Witherspoon finished up with the same margin ahead of Moss.

West ran Drummond very close until the 14th head, the former leading 11-10 at this stage. The home skip, however, gave away only a 3 thereafter and chalked up a total of 12 shots to his own score.

Division II

K.B.G.C. v. ELECTRIC R.C.

At Kowloon, the Bowling Green Club defeated the Electric R.C. by 27 shots.

Warren, who won by 16 shots, had much the better of the argument with Webster and led all the way.

Whitley, leading by 11 shots at the 11th head (15-14), looked as if he would swamp Muskett, but the latter made a wonderful recovery and tied the score at 18-18 at the close.

Deacon (E.R.C.) started off with a 1 and a 3 against Bell but could not keep up his advantage for long. Fortunes fluctuated for the most part, the score being level on three separate occasions—at the 10th head (12-12), at the 13th head (15-15) and at the 15th head (16-16), but Bell carried all before him in the last six heads.

KOWLOON C.C. v. C.S.C.C.

On their own ground, the Kowloon C.C. lost to the Civil Service C.C. by eight shots.

Robinson scored only three singles in the first ten heads when he was 14 points behind Murphy. The home skip only reduced his deficit by one point up to the 19th head, the score then being 11-24. In the last two heads, Robinson got a 2 and a 4, and lost by seven shots. Thanks chiefly to a 7 at the 6th head, Brace put it over Haynes by five shots in the 2nd rink.

Losing his lead at the 4th head by three points Labrum never caught up on Archibald, the latter winning rather easily by six shots.

C.C.C. v. TAIKOO R.C.

At Happy Valley, the Craigenower C.C. lost to the Taikoo R.C. by 13 shots.

Rosselet started very well and built up a margin of 11 shots against McKechnie (15-4) at the 11th head. The former still led by ten points at the 15th (17-7) but could do nothing right in the last six heads in which he failed to score and conceded 11 shots to the opposition.

In the second rink, Wiltshire led on only one occasion, by 7-6 at the 6th head. Walmsley scored a 4 and a 5 immediately after, and eventually won by nine shots. Scoring was very low up to the 8th head in the Collins-Munro rink. The Taikoo skip then notched 4-2-3-4 in succession and led by 16-5 at the 12th head. Collins was still ten points in arrears at the 18th but reduced his deficit by seven shots (1-4-2) in the last three heads.

R.H.K.Y.C. v. RECREIO

At North Point, the Royal H.K. Yacht Club, winning by six shots, repeated the same dose to the Club de Recreio as that which they administered a week ago. The victory of six shots by Tommy Loughran has to dry out a little more than he planned for his go with James Braddock at the Yankee Stadium since he jumped overboard to rescue Miss Herta Ehrler, left, from drowning at Hoosick Falls, Mass.

Shaw over Basto made all the difference in the game, from the Yacht Club's point of view, as the other two rinks balanced each other.

P.D.Q. & ST. LEGER PROSPECTS

POSTERITY FIRM

Walter Gay was scratched for the St. Leger to be run at Doncaster on September 11, on July 13 and subsequent bets are null and void.

Hotweed, winner of the Grand Prix, becomes favourite at 6 to 1.

P.D.Q. after a good race at Ascot, when he was beaten by Osiris, shortens to 20 to 1. With Gordon Richard up instead of an apprentice he is considered to have an undeniable chance in the St. Leger.

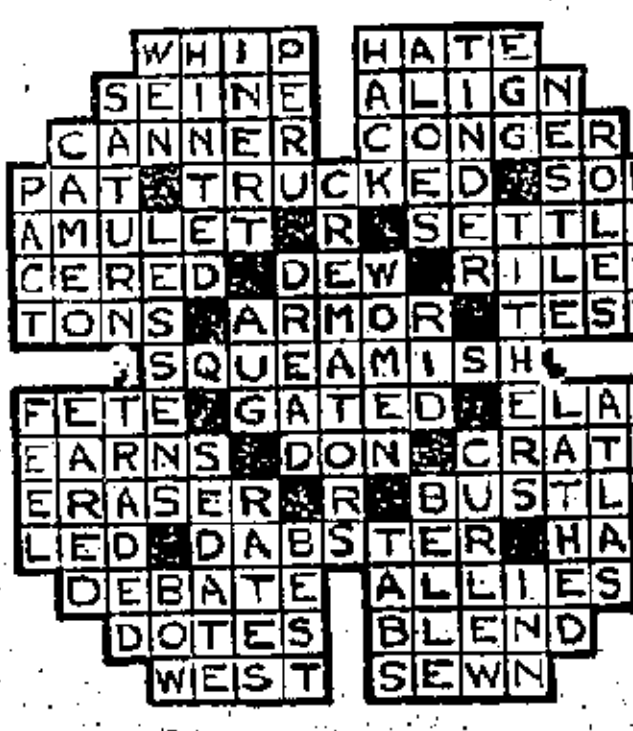

Posterity, ridden by Michael Beary, is still firm on the market at 10 to 1. Cavendo creeps up in the list to 20 to 1.

Appended are Mr. Frank Haytor's latest quotations:

- 6-1 Hotweed.
- 7-1 Trigo.
- 7-1 Pennycomequick.
- 10-1 Brien.
- 10-1 Hunter's Moon.
- 10-1 Posterity.
- 16-1 Haste Away.
- 16-1 Mr. Jinks.
- 20-1 Bosworth.
- 20-1 Tim Pear Tree.
- 20-1 Empire Builder.

SATURDAY'S SOLUTION.

MILITARY AQUATICS

Keen Sport at the Annual Gathering

ROYAL ARTILLERY PREDOMINATE

Maj.-General Luard's Cup Won By Lt. Dangerfield

Saturday afternoon was the second day of the Hong Kong Area Sports Board's fifth annual aquatic sports, when the finals were swum in the V.R.C. bath, providing keen, thrilling, and lively sport, in spite of the rain that fell during some of the races.

Officers of all the battalions in the Command were present, including H.E. the G.O.C. (Major-General J. W. Sandilands, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O.).

There was a good sprinkling of ladies and children whose encouraging shouts to the lusty swimmers gave place for humour, especially in the Indians' relay race, which proved to be the fun of the afternoon's great sport.

The diving of Lt. Herbage, R.A., was exceptionally good, while the Army Boys' Handicap Race was won by J. Green, last year's winner, in 40 2 5 seconds.

Nan Crossan did well to win the Army Girls' 50 yards handicap again. Her time was 45 1 5 seconds.

Lance-Corporal Finlayson, of the K.O.S.B., was the stalwart swimmer of the programme, winning the Small Units 150 yards Championship Cup in brilliant style.

The Royal Artillery proved the "best of the lot," winning the Aggregate Cup with 66 points.

"Live in the Sea"

Before the presentation of the prizes, H.E. the General Officer Commanding (Major-General J. W. Sandilands, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O.) delivered a short and appreciative speech in which he expressed thanks to the Committee, who had worked so hard for the excellent afternoon's sport, and also the Victoria Recreation Club for the frequent use of their bath. He congratulated the R.A. on winning the Aggregate Cup, and said that they had the advantage over the other regiments as they practically lived in the sea. The General emphasised the fact that the Somersets had just come and that next year he expected to see a considerable improvement in their swimming. He was pleased with the performance of the K.O.S.B.

The G.O.C. then presented prizes to the successful competitors.

THE RESULTS

R.S.M. T. Parkinson, K.O.S.B. who was M.C., called for three cheers for the General, which evoked a vigorous response.

Inter-Bty. Coy. Relay (Cup presented by Soldiers Club.) 1st man swims 25 yds., 2nd 50 yds., 3rd 75 yds., 4th 75 yds., 5th 50 yds., and 6th 25 yds.

LAWN TENNIS

ONLY ONE MATCH IN "B" DIVISION

IS INTEREST DEAD?

Very little attempt is being made to terminate the Tennis League season, especially in the only championship, the "B" division, which remains to be decided.

The "A" and "C" shields have been won by the Hong Kong Cricket Club and the South China Athletic Association respectively, and it is likely that the balance of the fixtures in these sections will be abandoned.

In the only match played on Saturday, the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha defeated the European Y.M.C.A. easily in the "B" division, but this result has no bearing on the championship.

"B" DIVISION

On their own ground, the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha defeated the European Young Men's Christian Association by seven sets to two.

FOREIGN RESIDENTS IN CHINA

NEW PROCEDURE

EFFECT OF CANCELLATION OF LOCAL BUREAUX

CENTRAL GOV'T'S. ROLE

Canton, Yesterday.
After the cancellation of local Bureau of Foreign Affairs which took effect from yesterday, and of the Provincial Bureau of Foreign Affairs, which will take place at the end of the year, new regulations issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs will govern the procedure between the local authorities and foreign residents in China.

Hereafter all matters relating to foreigners will be dealt direct by the Central Government. Local Governments are not allowed to have any direct dealing in matters relating to foreigners, nor must they establish offices similar to Foreign Office Bureaux, so as to avoid any complications.

All matters relating to foreigners, which do not come under the jurisdiction of the judicial Courts, are to be treated in the same manner as those pertaining to the citizens of China.

Special Municipal Office.
All matters, which do not concern diplomatic affairs, such as commercial transactions, leaseholds, title deeds, travelling passports, and the protection and control of foreign residences or related matters, are to be dealt with by the Special Office of the Municipal Government, or by the Office of the Magistrate where there is no municipal government.

In case of foreign complications arising within their jurisdiction, the foregoing offices should submit the same to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, which may, however, order them to take up the matters, if necessary.

All matters relating to foreigners which have not been adjusted and left over by the local Bureau of Foreign Affairs must be transmitted to the Provincial Bureau of Foreign Affairs. But after the cancellation of the Provincial Bureaux, such matters as left over must be handed over to local judicial Courts to be dealt with according to their nature of the matters.

Passports.
All diplomatic passports will continue to be issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, but ordinary passports will be obtained from the Special Office of the Municipal Government or the Office of the Magistrate.

Hereafter the nationals of Foreign Powers may deal direct with the above-mentioned offices without the intervention of their own Consuls—Canton News Agency.

In Swatow and Paochow.
Canton, Saturday.
According to the new regulations issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, the Bureau of Foreign Affairs at Swatow and Paochow will be abolished at the end of this month.

The Provincial Bureau of Foreign Affairs will be closed by the end of the year—Canton News Agency.

The trial began at Katowice, Poland, of Herr Ulitz, the director of the German minority organisation in Upper Silesia, on a charge of having aided recruits for the Polish army to desert and escape into Germany.

REFUSE AT BEACHES

QUESTIONS FOR THE SANITARY BOARD

INQUIRIES WANTED

At the meeting of the Sanitary Board to-morrow Mr. Wong Kwong-in, pursuant to notice, will ask:—

"Has the attention of the Head of the Sanitary Department been drawn to the comments in a Chinese Newspaper on the subject of refuse washed up on the North Point Bathing Beach in which it is suggested that this may be refuse removed by the Sanitary Department; and will he say if in his opinion there is any truth in such a suggestion?"

Mr. M. K. Lo, pursuant to notice, will ask:—
(1) Is the Head of the Sanitary Department aware that refuse is now being carried with the incoming tide to the bathing beach by the South China Athletic Association Bathing Shed, Quarry Bay?

(2) Have any, and if so, what, steps have been taken to prevent refuse, which is removed for disposal in the open seas, from being carried back to Hong Kong by tides?

(3) If, in connection with such steps, floats have been used to determine the current and direction of the tide carriage and such floats negative the theory that refuse is carried back by incoming tides, has the possibility of such wooden floats being picked up by fishermen for use as firewood, etc., been taken into consideration, and in any case will the Head of the Sanitary Department investigate into the existence of rubbish in the bathing beach above indicated."

THE HAGUE

PREMIER BUSILY ENGAGED WITH EXPERTS

GENEVA VISIT

London, Saturday.
Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, the Prime Minister, and Lord Cecil of Chelwood, have left for Geneva.

Interviewed by Reuters, the Premier said he was busily engaged with experts for 12 hours yesterday until 11 o'clock in the evening on the question of naval disarmament. "I was then busy until two in the morning clearing up the debris and sorting out the dead bodies from the living."

Mr. MacDonald will meet the League of Nations Assembly on September 3 and return on the 5th, in time to witness the Schneider Cup race on September 7.

Geneva, Saturday.
Mr. Arthur Henderson, the British Foreign Minister, has arrived from The Hague.

Baltimore, Saturday.
The "Baltimore Sun" says that Mr. MacDonald will arrive in the United States on November 4, and remain at the British Embassy and at White House for three days each, leaving for England on November 12.

INDUS FLOOD HAVOC

SITUATION CRITICAL

POPULATION WARNED TO EVACUATE

CHOLERA DECREASING

Bombay, To-day.
The situation in the Nawabshah flood area is still critical, but no further rainfall has occurred, and the cholera is decreasing. The population in the affected areas is evacuating.—Reuters.

Earlier News

Bombay, Saturday.
The Sind Commissioner has telegraphed to the Government that the Indus is still rising. Further breaches have occurred in the Nawabshah district, and the flood area has increased.

The population in the river tracts have been warned to evacuate. Arrangements have been made for free rail transport, and the railways are pressing all available rolling stock into service.

District collectors have been ordered to prepare refugee camps, and the services of the military has been requisitioned to keep order, on refugee trains. The R.A.F. is co-operating, and doctors armed with cholera vaccine are being sent to the affected districts.

[It was reported on August 30 that renewed floods of the river Indus, spreading death and devastation in many villages in North-West India, completely wiped out the district of Dera Ghazi Khan, which is itself threatened by destruction. It is feared that 300 persons were drowned.

Further fatalities occurred at Attock, where villages disappeared as a consequence of breaches in the banks of the Indus and Kabul rivers. The Punjab Government has advised the Sind district to prepare for a record inundation.]

delegates, have arrived here for the League assembly opening on Sept. 2.

Another Naval Conference

Baltimore, Yesterday.
According to the "Baltimore Sun," Mr. MacDonald says that invitations would be issued to Japan, France, and Italy to participate in a naval conference this winter.

London, Yesterday.
Mr. MacDonald, interviewed by Reuters at Dover, en route to Geneva, declined to discuss naval disarmament at present, but said "if that chicken is not duly hatched I shall be the most surprised man living."

Great War Only Just Ended.
Mr. Henderson, interviewed at Geneva, foreshadowed an important announcement by Mr. MacDonald, regarding the naval disarmament assembly next week. Mr. Henderson declared that the great war has really only just ended, thanks to the recent decision to remove foreign troops from German territory.

Consequently, he contemplated the present assembly with greater confidence than any previous assembly.

Visit to Washington

Baltimore, Yesterday.
Mr. MacDonald leaves for Washington on Sept. 23, where he will stay for six days.

Cheers for Snowden

London, Yesterday.
A storm of cheering greeted the arrival of Mr. Snowden and the British delegates from The Hague at Liverpool Street this morning.

Mr. Snowden, interviewed by Reuters, said that "the conference realised our best hopes. We succeeded in all the essential points of our claims, and the influence of Great Britain in international affairs has been re-established."

"Our relations with other countries are now on a more cordial basis than at any time since the war. We are now better understood, although it took the delegations of other nations some time to realise that in asserting our claims for fair treatment we were really fighting for the sanctity of international agreements."

"We have been greatly strengthened in our efforts by the practical unanimity of the British Press, and British public opinion, for which we cannot too highly express our obligations."—Reuters.
